Edward Glover, 61, of Derby, VT, succumbed to cancer on February 12, 2016 at his home. He was born on January 17, 1955 to Hayden and Pauline Glover (formerly Pauline Storey) who both predeceased him.

Ed, as his family and friends call him, is a graduate from North Country Union High School. He was a CNC operator for North Country Engineering. He was also certified at the Recording Institute of America for Modern Recording Techniques. Among his hobbies he enjoyed collecting vintage sports cars. He was a lead guitarist in the Knives Band, Magnum Force, and Thunderbolt Band to name a few. He enjoyed reading, listening to music, playing guitar and he loved his dogs.

He is survived by his wife Domisita Glover, his step-daughter Tracy Julve, his Aunts: Phyllis, Evelyn and Laura and by his many cousins.

A funeral service will be held at 1:00 P.M. on Saturday February 20, 2016 at the Curtis-Britch-Converse-Rushford Funeral Home, 4670 Darling Hill Road, Newport. Friends may call at the funeral home on Saturday February 20, 2016 from 12 Noon until the hour of the funeral. A reception will follow at the American Legion, 35 Veteran's Avenue, Newport, VT from 2:30 P.M. until 5:30 P.M.

Should friends desire, contributions in his memory may be made to the Hope Lodge, 237 East Avenue, Burlington, VT 05401-3412. On-line condolences at curtis-britch.com.
