Death is nothing at all.
I have only slipped away into the next room.
I am I, and you are you. Whatever we were to each other, that we still are.
Call me by my old familiar name, speak to me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference in your tone, wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.
Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together.
Pray, smile, think of me, pray for me.
Let my name be ever the household word that it always was, let it be spoken without effect, without the trace of a shadow on it.
Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was; there is unbroken continuity.
Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?
I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just round the corner.
All is well.

—Henry Scott Holland

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

—John 3:16

God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around her
And whispered, “Come with Me.”

With tearful eyes we watched her suffer
And saw her fade away,
Although we loved her dearly
We could not make her stay.

A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands to rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

God saw he was getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around him
And whispered, “Come with Me.”

With tearful eyes we watched him suffer
And saw him fade away,
Although we loved him dearly
We could not make him stay.

A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands to rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.
Beyond the rainbow's farthest end, there lies
A land that's always filled with love and light.
Where shadows never fall and dim the skies;
For in this lovely land, there is no night.
In this celestial place of joy and peace,
There is no time or space, no doubt or fear;
For those who come to it, all troubles cease.
All worldly difficulties disappear.

And though the loss of loved ones or of friends
Brings sorrows and is hard for us to bear.
If we could see beyond the rainbow's end
We know that we could find them waiting there
In that celestial dwelling place above—
The land of peace and joy, of light and love.

America, the Beautiful
O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

Crossing the Bar
Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

—ALFRED TENNYSON

Leaf after leaf drops off, flower after flower,
Some in the chill,
some in the warmer hour:
Alive they flourish,
and alive they fall,
And the Earth who nourished them receives them all.
Should we, her wiser sons,
be less content
To sink into her lap when life is spent?

Mystery
What is this mystery that men call death?
My friend before me lies; in all save breath
He seems the same as yesterday. His face
So like to life, so calm, bears not a trace
Of that great change which all of us so dread.
I gaze on him and say: He is not dead,
But sleeps; and soon he will rise and take Me by the hand. I know he will awake
And smile on me as he did yesterday;
And he will have some gentle word to say,
Some kindly deed to do; for loving thought Was warp and woof of which his life was wrought.
He is not dead. Such souls forever live
In boundless measure of the love they give.

—Jerome B. Bell

Requiem
Under the wide and starry sky
Dig the grave and let me lie;
Glad did I live and gladly die,
And I laid me down with a will.
This be the verse you ‘grave for me:
Here he lies where he long’d to be;
Home is the sailor, home from the sea,
And the hunter home from the hill.

Death be not proud,
though some have called thee
Mighty and dreadful,
for thou art not so:
For those whom thou think’st thou dost overthrow Dienot, poor death,
nor yet canst thou kill me.
Oneshort sleep past,
we wake eternally,
And Death shall be no more:
Death, thou shalt die.

God's finger touched him and he slipped away
From earth's dark shadows to a brighter day;
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his weary eyes,
And whispered, "Peace be thine."
To a beautiful garden this friend has gone,
To a land of perfect rest;
Though he is gone he still lives on
In the garden of memory.

Death is only an old door
Set in a garden wall.
On quiet hinges it gives at dusk,
When the thrushes call.

Along the lintel are green leaves,
Beyond, the light lies still;
Very weary and willing feet
Go over that sill.

There is nothing to trouble any heart,
Nothing to hurt at all.
Death is only an old door
In a garden wall.

Nancy Byrd Turner
If this were my last day I’m almost sure
I’d spend it working in my garden. I Would dig about my little plants, and try
To make them happy, so they would endure
Long after me. Then I would hide secure
Where my green arbor shades me from the sky,
And watch how bird and bee and butterfly
Came hovering to every flowery lure.
Then, as I rested, perhaps a friend or two,
Lovers of flowers would come,
and we would walk
About my little garden paths and talk
Of peaceful times when all the world seemed true.
This may be my last day, for all I know;
What a temptation just to spend it so!

Anne Higginson Spicer

The butterfly emerges from its silken shell—
Reborn, it arises,
no longer bound to earth.
Free at last, the butterfly glides to heights unknown before.

So do our loved ones find a beautiful release
as, earthbound no more,
they leave our sight and joyfully rise to a garden of matchless beauty,
a place of light and peace.

In Memory

When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years.
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same;
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!

The time has come for me to leave this life. I have fought the good fight. I have finished the race. I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness which the LORD, the righteous judge, will award to me on that day.

—Paul’s Second Letter to Timothy
God’s Promises
God gives grace for each trial,
And courage for each sorrow,
And faith to face in confidence
A blessed, bright tomorrow.

Life Must Go On
Grieve for me, for I would grieve for you,
Then brush away the sorrow and the tears,
Life is not over, but begins anew.
With courage you must greet the coming years.
To live forever in the past is wrong,
Can only cause you misery and pain,
Dwell not on memories overlong,
With others you must share and care again.
Reach out and comfort those who comfort you,
Recall the years but only for a while,
Nurse not your loneliness but live again,
Forget not—remember with a smile.

Behold,
God is my salvation;
I will trust and not be afraid,
for the Lord God is my strength and my song;
He also has become my salvation.
ISAIAH 12:2

There is never a life without sadness,
There is never a heart free from pain;
If one seeks in this world for true solace,
He seeks it forever in vain.

So when to your heart comes the sorrow
Of losing some dear one you’ve known
Tis the touch of God’s sickle at harvest
Since He reaps in the fields He has sown.
The Christian’s “Good-night”

Sleep on, beloved, sleep, and take thy rest;
Lay down thy head upon thy Saviour’s breast;
We love thee well, but Jesus loves thee best—
Good-night! Good-night! Good-night!

Calm is thy slumber as an infant’s sleep,
But thou shalt wake no more to toil and weep;
Thine is a perfect rest, secure and deep—
Good-night! Good-night! Good-night!

Until the Easter glory lights the skies;
Until the dead in Jesus shall arise,
And He shall come, but not in lowly guise—
Good-night! Good-night! Good-night!

Until made beautiful by Love Divine,
Thou, in the likeness of thy Lord shalt shine,
And He shall bring that golden crown of thine—
Good-night! Good-night! Good-night!

Only “Good-night,” beloved—not “Farewell!”
A little while, and all His saints shall dwell
In hallowed union, indivisible—
Good-night! Good-night! Good-night!

Until we meet again before His throne,
Clothed in the spotless robes He gives His own;
Until we know even as we are known—
Good-night! Good-night! Good-night!

—Sarah Doudney

When I come to the end of the day

And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared—
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It’s all a part of the Maker’s plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds—
Miss me, but let me go.

There Is No Death

There is a plan far greater than the plan you know;
There is a landscape broader than the one you see.
There is a haven where storm-tossed souls may go—
You call it death—we, immortality.

You call it death—this seeming endless sleep;
We call it birth—the soul at last set free.
’Tis hampered not by time or space—you weep.
Why weep at death? ’Tis immortality.

Farewell, dear voyageur—’twill not be long.
Your work is done—now may peace rest with thee.
Your kindly thoughts and deeds—they will live on.
This is not death—’tis immortality.

Farewell, dear voyageur—the river winds and turns;
The cadence of your song wafts near to me,
And now you know the thing all men learn:
There is no death—there’s immortality.

—Unknown

God gives us each a gift of life

To cherish from our birth.
He gives us friends and those we love
To share our days on Earth.

He watches us with loving care
And takes us by the hand,
He blesses us with countless joys
And guides the lives we’ve planned.

Then, when our work on Earth is done,
He calls us to His side,
To live with Him in happiness
Where peace and love abide.
Abide With Me

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide;
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, oh abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O thou who changest not, abide with me.

I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness;
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide in me.

Hold then Thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide in me.

—Henry Francis Lyte

To a Waterfowl

There is a Power whose care
Teaches thy way along that pathless coast—
The desert and limitless air—
Lone wandering, but never lost.

And soon that toil shall end;
Soon shalt thou find a summer home, and rest,
And scream among thy fellows; reeds shall bend,
Soon, o'er thy sheltered rest.

He who, from zone to zone,
Guides through the boundless sky
thy certain flight,
In the long way that I must tread alone,
Will lead my steps aright.

—William Cullen Bryant

God, make me brave for life:
Oh, braver than this.
Let me straighten after pain,
As a tree straightens after the rain,
Shining and lovely again.
God, make me brave for life;
Much braver than this.
As the blown grass lifts, let me rise
From sorrow with quiet eyes,
Knowing thy way is wise.
God, make me brave, life brings
Such blinding things.
Help me to keep my sight;
Help me to see aright
That out of dark comes light.

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.
My help cometh from the Lord, which made Heaven and earth.
He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: He that keepeth thee will not slumber.
Behold, He that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.
The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.
The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.
The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil:
He shall preserve thy soul.
The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

—Psalm 121
Nearer, my God, to Thee, Nearer to Thee!
E’en though it be a cross that raiseth me;
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to Thee, Nearer to Thee!

Though like the wanderer, The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me, my rest a stone;
Yet in my dreams I’d be
Nearer, my God, to Thee, Nearer to Thee!

There let the way appear, Steps into heaven;
All that Thou send’st to me in mercy given;
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to Thee, Nearer to Thee!

Then, with my waking thoughts, Bright with Thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs Bethel I’ll raise;
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God, to Thee, Nearer to Thee!

Or if on joyful wing, Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon and stars forgot, upward I fly,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to Thee, Nearer to Thee!

—Sarah Adams

As the deer thirsts for flowing brooks, so longs my soul for you,
O God.

—Psalm 42:1

Nature

As a fond mother, when the day is o’er,
Leads by the hand her little child to bed,
Half willing, half reluctant to be led,
And leave his broken playthings on the floor,
Still gazing at them through the open door,
Nor wholly reassured and comforted
By the promises of others in their stead,
Which, though more splendid,
may not please him more;
So Nature deals with us, and takes away
Our playthings one by one, and by the hand
Leads us to rest so gently, that we go
Scarce knowing if we wish to go or stay,
Being too full of sleep to understand How far the unknown transcends the what we know.

HENRY WADSWORTH LONGFELLOW

God is gracious
More gracious than woman.
More protective than man.

He has a way of unfolding life.
He formed man out of the dust.
He lifted Noah out of water.
He led Israel out of Egypt.
He called David out of sin.
He lifted Mary out of doubt.
He led Lazarus out of tombs.
He raised Jesus out of death.

God has a way of caring.
He lifts up the spirit,
rises up the dead,
and opens up the future.

God is in charge of all that is good,
all that was good,
and all the good to come.

One thing Jesus made clear:
God is love.
Magnificat
My soul glorifies the Lord,
   my spirit rejoices in God, my Savior.
He looks on his servant in her nothingness;
   henceforth all ages will call me blessed.
The Almighty works marvels for me.
   Holy is his name!
His mercy is from age to age
   on those who fear him.
He puts forth his arm in strength and scatters the proudhearted.
He casts the mighty from their thrones and raises the lowly.
He fills the starving with good things,
   sends the rich away empty.
He protects Israel his servant,
   remembering his mercy,
The mercy promised to our ancestors,
   to Abraham and his children forever.

Homecoming
I believe there is Someone waiting for me,
   Waiting to say: “Welcome Home!”
Someone I have never seen, but whom I will recognize in the depths of my heart because He has lived there since the beginning of time.
Someone who has never doubted my return, never failed to still my doubts about my return.
I believe there is Someone who knows me so intimately, loves me so totally, that joy will spark spontaneously when we reunite in the land of immortal Birth.
Tears will be wiped away; Sadness and fear will disappear as mist when it meets the morning sun.
This is whom I seek, who seeks me.
He has never left me alone.
For He is Self of my self,
   Soul of my soul,
   Life of my very life.
—Sr. Joan Metzner

As the deer thirsts for flowing brooks, so longs my soul for you, O God.
I thirst for God, the living God. When shall I come and behold the face of God?
Day and night I weep for his help, while my enemies taunt me, “Where is your God?”
Take courage my soul! Remember how you have gone with the faithful to the house of God with the voice of joy and praise. Why then be downcast? Why be discouraged and sad? Hope in God! I shall praise him again for His help.
Though I am standing here depressed and gloomy, I will meditate upon your kindness to this lovely land.
All your waves have gone over me, and floods of sorrow pour upon me like a thundering waterfall.
Yet day by day the Lord also pours out His steadfast love upon me, and through the night I sing his songs and pray to God who gives me life.
O my soul, don’t be discouraged. Hope in God, for I shall again praise Him for all that He will do. He is my help! He is my God!
—Psalm 42

Jesus said,
   “Let the little children come to me,
   and do not hinder them,
   for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.”
—Matthew 19:14
He will dwell with them,
and they shall be His people,
and God himself shall be with them;
He will wipe away every tear
from their eyes,
and death shall be no more,
Neither shall there be mourning nor crying nor pain any more,
for the former things have passed away.

—Revelation 21:3-4

God heals the brokenhearted, and binds up their wounds.
He counts the stars
and calls them all by name.
How great is our Lord!
His power is absolute!
His understanding is without measure!

—Psalm 147:3-5

Jesus said,
“In my Father’s house are many rooms;
if it were not so would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you?
And when I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way I am going.”

“I am the way, and the truth,
and the life;
no one comes to the Father, but by me.”

“Because I live, you will live also.”

John 14:2-6, 19

It’s difficult when someone
Who is loved cannot be there,
But memories that are made and shared
Will keep a loved one near.
And God, with loving wisdom,
Will be there to guide us through;
He’ll help us meet tomorrow
And He’ll give us strength anew.
N ever again will they hunger;
Never again will they thirst.
The sun will not beat down upon them
nor any scorching heat.
For the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd;
He will lead them to springs of living water.
And God will wipe away every tear
from their eyes.
—Revelation 7:16,17

F or the Lord is my rock and my fortress;
therefore for thy name’s sake lead me,
and guide me.
Truly my soul waiteth upon God:
from Him cometh my salvation.
He only is my rock and my salvation;
He is my defense; I shall not be moved.
—The Psalms

Jesus said,
“I am the resurrection
and the life;
he who believes in me,
though he die,
yet shall he live,
and whoever lives
and believes in me shall never die.”
—John 11:25,26

He stilled the storm to a whisper;
the waves of the sea were hushed.
They were glad when it grew calm, and He guided them to their haven of rest.
—Psalm 107:29,30
Jesus said:
“I am the light of the world.
He that follows me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.”

John 8:12

“I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and whoever lives and believes in me shall never die.”

John 11:25,26

There is a time to reap what is ripe,
to bring in what is grown,
to pluck what is fulfilled.
It is time to harvest.
The Father's own Son is reaper.
The Lord is the reaper,
the one who led home the prodigal,
gathered in the lamb,
and dined with sinners.
It is harvest time.
Time to give thanks
that Jesus is the judge.
He will reap and He will plant;
He will harvest and He will grow;
He will plant and He will raise.
The earth is in His hands.
So are those who till and toil.
It is harvest time.
Soon it will be seed time.
Jesus said so.
He is in charge of the harvest.

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.
Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be moved, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;
Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.
There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High.
God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall come to her aid at early dawn.

Psalm 46:1-5

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from
whence cometh my help.
My help cometh from the Lord, which made Heaven and earth.
The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil:
He shall preserve thy soul.
The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even
for evermore.

—Psalm 121:1-2,7-8
Jesus said,
“Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.
“Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart: and you will find rest unto your souls.
“For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

Matthew 11:28-30

They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength;
They shall mount up with wings as eagles;
They shall run and not be weary;
They shall walk, and not be faint.

Isaiah 40:31

Surely Jesus loves fishermen for He chose them for His own, To be with Him and learn from Him and someday share His home. It must have been their trust in God and patience He found rare, That keeps them very near His heart and ever in His care.

–Anne Kujawa

No eye has seen, Nor ear heard, Nor the heart of man conceived, what God has prepared for those who love Him.

1 Corinthians 2:9
The Twenty-Third Psalm

The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name’s sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Psalm 23

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
A time to kill and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

The earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

Mark 4:28

The earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

Mark 4:28

My Farm

My farm to me is not just land
Where bare unpainted buildings stand—
To me, my farm is nothing less
Than all created loveliness.

My farm is not where I must soil
My hands in endless dreary toil
But where, through seed and swelling pod
I’ve learned to walk, and talk with God.

My farm, to me, is not a place
Outmoded by the modern race
For here, I think, I just see less
Of evil, greed, and selfishness.

My farm’s a haven—here dwells rest,
Security and happiness—
Whate’er befalls the world outside
Here faith and hope and love abide.

And so my farm is not just land
Where bare unpainted buildings stand—
To me, my farm is nothing less
Than all God’s hoarded loveliness.

The earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

Ecclesiastes 3:2

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted.

Ecclesiastes 3:2

MarkThomas Verse Library 2.1 - 15
Hail, Mary, full of grace,
the Lord is with you.
Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, mother of God,
pray for us sinners now
and at the hour of our death. Amen.

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

When the wicked, even my enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

Though a host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in His temple.

For in the time of trouble He shall hide me in His pavilion: in the secret of His tabernacle shall He hide me, He shall set me up upon a rock.

Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and He shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord.

Psalm 27:1-5,14

I felt the light of heaven
it was shining down on me,
I heard His voice, He called my name,
“my child, come follow Me;”
There is no pain, there is no hurt
nor sadness anywhere,
In heaven there is joy and love
and I’ll be waiting there;
For on the day I left this earth
I felt your many tears,
And now I watch you from above and keep you very near;
It hurts to be apart from me, but
be patient for the day,
When we meet again in love and peace
when you too come this way.
—Stephanie Clarke

The earth is the Lord’s, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

For He hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord?
or who shall stand in His holy place?

He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart;
who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

He shall receive the blessing from the Lord,
et and righteousness from the God of salvation.

Psalm 24:1-5
God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave, for He shall receive me.

Psalm 49:15

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound That saved a wretch like me! I once was lost but now am found, Was blind but now I see.

Through many dangers, toils and snares, I have already come; ’Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far, And grace will lead me home.

When we’ve been there ten thousand years, Bright shining as the sun, We’ve no less days to sing God’s praise Than when we’d first begun!

—John Newton, John P. Rees

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

—Psalm 27:1

Jesus loves me! this I know, For the Bible tells me so; Little ones to Him belong, They are weak but He is strong.

Yes, Jesus loves me! Yes, Jesus loves me! Yes, Jesus loves me! The Bible tells me so!
Every blade in the field
Every leaf in the forest
Lays down its life in its season
As beautifully as it was taken up.

Henry David Thoreau

God hath not promised
Skies always blue.
Flower-strewn pathways
All our lives through:
God hath not promised
Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.

But God hath promised
Strength for the day;
Rest for the labor,
Light for the way;
Grace for the trials,
Help from above;
Unfailing sympathy,
Undying love...

Prayer of
St. Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.

Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
FOR I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
—Romans 8:38-39

TAPS

Day is done, gone the sun from the lake, from the hill, from the sky.
All is well, safely rest. God is nigh.

Thanks and praise for our days
‘neath the sun, ‘neath the stars,
‘neath the sky.
As we go, this we know. God is nigh.

NOW I lay me
down to sleep,
I pray the Lord
my soul to keep.
There shall be no night there; and they shall need no candle, neither light of the sun; For the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

Revelation 22:5

He said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

Hebrews 13:5

When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee.

Isaiah 43:2

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path.

Psalm 119:105
I am standing upon the seashore. A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength. I stand and watch her until at length she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come together to mingle with each other.

Then someone at my side says: “There, she is gone!”

“Gone where?”

Gone from my sight. That is all. She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side and she is just as able to bear her load of living freight to her destined port.

Her diminished size is in me, not in her. And just as the moment when someone at her side says: “There, she is gone!” there are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout: “Here she comes!”

We shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed.

“Death is swallowed up in victory.”
"O death, where is thy victory? O death, where is thy sting?"

— 1 Corinthians 15

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

—Matthew 5:3-8

“Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; he has risen!”

—Luke 24:5-6
Footprints

One night I had a dream. I was walking along the beach with the Lord, and across the skies flashed scenes from my life. In each scene I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand. One was mine, and one was the Lord’s.

When the last scene of my life appeared before me, I looked back at the footprints in the sand, and to my surprise I noticed that many times along the path of my life there was only one set of footprints. And I noticed that it was at the lowest and saddest times in my life.

I asked the Lord about it. “Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you would walk with me all the way. But I notice that during the most troublesome times in my life there is only one set of footprints. I don’t understand why you left my side when I needed you most.”

The Lord replied, “My precious child, I love you and would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, where you see only one set of footprints, I was carrying you.”

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever.

Amen.

Behold, I stand at the door, and knock; if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

REVELATION 3:20

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done, On earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil.

Amen.
The Sheaf of Wheat . . .
Symbol of Christian Faith

The seeds of faith are sown in the human personality and grow into the mature faith of the Christian man or woman.

The sown seed must lose its life in order that it may develop and grow and multiply. So symbolically, a sheaf of wheat is used by Christians to mark the passing of a fellow Christian.

Death is not the end but the beginning of life eternal.

The mature grain in the sheaf is the direct symbol of the Resurrection — the life beyond the grave, the fulfillment of the promises of Jesus Christ.

As for man, his days are as grass, as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth. For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more. But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting...

Psalm 103:15-17

When Peace, Like a River

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way; When sorrows, like sea billows, roll; Whatever my lot, thou hast taught me to say, “It is well, it is well with my soul.”

And, Lord, haste the day when our faith shall be sight, The clouds be rolled back as a scroll, The trumpet shall sound, and the Lord shall descend; Even so it is well with my soul.

— Horatio G. Spafford

Now the laborer’s task is o’er; Now the battle day is past; Now upon the farther shore Lands the voyager at last. Father, in thy gracious keeping, Leave we now thy servant sleeping.

“Earth to earth and dust to dust,” Calmly now the words we say, Left behind, we wait in trust For the resurrection day. Father, in thy gracious keeping, Leave we now thy servant sleeping.

— John Ellerton
Comfort

In everybody's garden
A little rain must fall
Our life's sweetest fairest flowers,
Wouldn't grow and bloom at all.
And though the clouds hang heavy
So heavy. Oh! My friend.
I'm sure that God who sends the shower
Will send the rainbow's end.

Comfort

There is a tower of strength
For you and for me—
Tis that which we call faith.
And as the sea
Oft dashes on the rocks
To no avail
So storms may come to us;
But in the gale
We lean upon that faith
And soon once more
We see a beacon light—
It is the shore.

FRANKLIN LEE STEVENSON

Eternal Color

In spring, tree's leaves were merely buds when everything was new.
They couldn't shade, nor hide a bird,
but every day they grew.
Now autumn's here, and leaves have turned from summertime's full bloom.
They separate from branch, their home,
and snow will be their tomb.
How sad that when they're at their peak
it's time for them to go.
Yet, how colorful they made this world;
it was God's plan, I know.
Your life, too, was most beautiful;
how brightly shown your heart.
For now, my friend, you've joined the leaves,
and from us, did depart.
Separated from us on earth
you've joined the Lord above.
We'll miss you here, our dearest friend,
but glad you taught us love.

— LeeAnn Abell

I am not there

Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep
I am in a thousand winds that blow,
I am the softly falling snow.
I am the gentle showers of rain,
I am the fields of ripening grain.
I am in the morning hush,
I am in the graceful rush
Of birds in circling flight.
I am the star shine of the night.
I am in the flowers that bloom,
I am in a quiet room,
I am the birds that sing,
I am in each lovely thing.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there. I did not die.

— Mary Frye
Prayer

May the angels lead you into Paradise, may the Martyrs receive you at your coming, and take you to Jerusalem, the holy city. May the choirs of the Angels receive you, and may you with the once poor Lazarus have rest everlasting. Amen.

May the Souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Final Harvest

He was bound to the land from the day of his birth
His roots anchored deep in the fertile earth
Nurtured, sustained, by the soil he grew
And his life, like his furrows, ran straight and true.

In faith, each spring, he planted the seeds
In hope, to reap his family's needs
With patience, he waited for the harvest to come
To gather the fruits of his labor home.

Ever turning seasons, the years sped past
Til the final harvest came at last
Then claimed anew by beloved sod
He was gathered home to be with God.

— Barbara W. Weber

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at close of day.
If my parting has left a void
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
ah, yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me
God wanted me now:
He set me free.
In Memory of a Mother

I remember thee in this solemn hour, my dear Mother. I remember the days when thou didst dwell on earth, and thy tender love watched over me like a guardian angel. Thou hast gone from me, but the bond which unites our souls can never be severed; thine image lives within my heart. May the merciful Father reward thee for the faithfulness and kindness thou hast ever shown me, may He lift up the light of His countenance upon thee and grant thee eternal peace. Amen.

Music has moments of rapturous sound
And intervals of rest.
It thrills the heart with its majesty
And soothes it when suppressed.
Life too has ringing, throbbing tones
And muted, silent keys,
Yet both are merged at the Master's touch
Into living symphonies.

Success

He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often, and loved much; who has enjoyed the trust of pure women, the respect of intelligent men and the love of little children; who has filled his niche and accomplished his task; who has left the world better than he found it, whether an improved poppy, a perfect poem, or a rescued soul; who has always looked for the best in others and given them the best he had; whose life was an inspiration; whose memory a benediction.

Bessie Anderson Stanley

I am the door: anyone who enters by me shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.
The thief comes only to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I have come that they might have life, and that they might have it abundantly.
I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.
I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and my sheep know me.
Just as the Father knows me, so I know the Father; and I lay down my life for my sheep.

John 10:9-15
IN MEMORY

As we gather here today to pay tribute to a loved one and friend, let us remember and hold in memory, and cherish those moments that each of us shared in some way with our departed one.

Let us join hands and hearts together in this service so that it may lend comfort and solace to the family and serve as an inspiration to all of us in the months and years ahead.

"And so now I give a new commandment to you—love each other just as I love you."

John 13:34

Jesus said,
"Let not your heart be troubled: you believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And when I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way I am going."

"I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no one comes to the Father, but by me."

"Because I live, you will live also."

John 14:1-6, 19

After Glow
I’d like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I’d like to leave an after glow of smiles when life is done.
I’d like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I’d like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

They that love beyond the world cannot be separated by it.
Death is but crossing the world, as friends do the seas;
they live in one another still.

— William Penn
He will feed his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms and carry them off in his bosom, and gently lead the mother sheep.

Isaiah 40:11

The grass withers, the flower fades, when the breath of the Lord blows upon it; surely the people are grass.

The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God shall stand forever.

Isaiah 40:7

On this wondrous sea, Sailing silently, Ho! pilot, ho! Knowest thou the shore Where no breakers roar, Where the storm is o'er?

In the silent west Many sails at rest, Their anchors fast; Thither I pilot thee— Land, ho! Eternity! Ashore at last!

Emily Dickenson

Life, believe, is not a dream, So dark as sages say; Oft a little morning rain Foretells a pleasant day; Sometimes there are clouds of gloom, But these are transient all; If the shower will make the roses bloom, Oh, why lament its fall? Rapidly, merrily, Life's sunny hours flit by; Gratefully, cheerily, Enjoy them as they fly.

What though death at times steps in, And calls our Best away? What though Sorrow seems to win, O'er hope a heavy sway? Yet Hope again elastic springs, Unconquered, though she fell, Still buoyant are her golden wings, Still strong to bear us well. Manfully, fearlessly, The day of trial bear, For gloriously, victoriously, Can courage quell despair!

Charlotte Brontë
ORACIÓN

Reconoce, Señor, tu criatura, obra no de dioses extraños, sino tuya, Dios único, vivo y verdadero, porque no hay otro Dios más que tú, y nadie te iguala en las obras. Haz, Señor, que tu dulce presencia le llene el alma de alegría; Olvida sus iniquidades pasadas y los extravios a que fué arrastrada por sus pasiones; Porque aún cuando pecó no ha renunciado a la fé del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo, sino que ha conservado el celo del Señor y adorado fielmente a Dios, creador de todas las cosas. Amen.

Como anhela la cierva estar junto al arroyo, así mi alma desea, Señor, estar contigo.

—Salmo 42:1

El Señor es mi luz y mi salud,
¿a quién puedo temer?
Amparo de mi vida es el Señor,
¿de quién puedo temblar?

Cuando los malos contra mí se lanzan para comer mi carne ellos, mis enemigos y contrarios,
resbalan y sucumen.

Si me sitia un ejército contrario,
mi corazón no teme;
si se levanta contra mí la guerra,
aún tendré confianza.

Una cosa al Señor, sólo, le pido,
la cosa que yo busco,
es habitar en la casa del Señor
mientras dure mi vida, que yo pueda gozar de su dulzura
y contemplar su templo.

Porque él me dará asilo en su cabaña en día de desgracia;
me guarda en el secreto de su tienda,
me alza sobre la roca.

Jesús dijo:
“Yo soy la Luz del mundo. El que me sigue no caminará en tinieblas sino que tendrá luz y vida.”

Juan 8:12

“Yo soy la Resurrección. El que cree en mí, aunque muera vivirá. El que vive por la fe en mí no morirá para siempre.”

Juan 11:25,26

Salmo 27:1-5
Dios te salve María, llena eres de gracia, el Señor es contigo,
bendita eres entre todas las mujeres
y bendito es el fruto de tu vientre, Jesús.
Santa María, madre de Dios, ruega por nosotros pecadores, ahora
y en la hora de nuestra muerte.
Amen.

—Salmo 121:1-2,7-8

Dios sana los corazones
destrozados y venda heridas.
El cuenta las estrellas una a una y llama a cada una por su nombre.
¡Grande es el Señor!
¡Todo lo puede,
nadie puede medir su inteligencia!

—Salmo 147:3-5

El cambió la tempestad en suave brisa, y las olas del mar se aquietaron.
Se alegraron al verlas tranquilas,
y Él los llevó al puerto deseado.
—Salmo 107:29,30

Dirijo la mirada hacia los cerros en busca de socorro.
Mi socorro me viene del Señor que hizo el cielo y la tierra.
Te preserva el Señor de cualquier mal y protege tu vida.
El te cuida al salir y al regresar, ahora y para siempre.

—Salmo 121:1-2,7-8
Jesús dijo:

“Vengan a mí los que se sienten cargados y agobiados, porque yo los aliviare.

“Carguen con mi yugo y aprendan de mí que soy paciente de corazón y humilde, y sus almas encontrarán alivio.

“Pues mi yugo es bueno, y mi carga liviana.”

Mateo 11:28-30

El Salmo Veinte-Tres

El Señor es mi pastor, nada de falta, en verdes pastos él me hace reposar y adonde brota agua fresca me conduce.

Fortalece mi alma, por el camino del buen me dirige por amor de su Nombre.

Aunque pase por quebradas muy oscuras no temo ningún mal, porque tú estás conmigo, tu bastón y tu vara me protegen.

Me sirves a la mesa frente a mis adversarios, con aceites tú perfumas mi cabeza y rellanas mi copa.

Me acompañan tu bondad y tu favor mientras dura mi vida, mi mansión será la casa del Señor por largo, largo tiempo.

Oración de
San Francisco de Asís

Señor, hazme un instrumento de Tu paz, donde haya odio, lleve yo el amor donde haya injuria, tu perdón Señor; donde haya duda, lleve yo la fe.

Hazme un instrumento de Tu paz, donde haya pesar, lleve yo esperanza donde haya oscuridad Tu luz, Señor donde haya tristeza, lleve yo alegría.

Maestro ayudame a nunca mentir, a ser consolado, sino consolar a ser entendido, sino entender a ser amado, sino yo amar.

Por eso es que en dar nosotros recivimos; en perdonar, nosotros somos perdonados; y en morir nacemos a la vida eterna.

Salmo 24:15
